Welcome

TO THE INTENTIONAL CHURCHES CONFERENCE!

We are so excited to host you at our third annual leadership conference. Our vision for the next two days is that you, as a church leader, will leave feeling inspired and equipped to mobilize your people. As a result, we dream that your churches and communities will experience the impact of increasing numbers of individuals and families finding Christ, becoming connected with one another, and engaged in the local church.

This conference is a great opportunity for you to learn from and collaborate with one another. We have church leaders joining us from all areas of the country—many serving in different denominations, with different traditions and backgrounds. But what unites us all is Jesus and our personal conviction and alignment with the Great Commission. Let's lean into that together this week!

This year the conference includes main sessions, panel discussions, and interactive tracks designed to inspire and equip you and your team. Each of these opportunities will focus on the heart of mobilizing the ninety-nine to reach and grow the One. Our prayer for you is that you can separate yourself from the temptation to try and find quick fixes for your ministry, and instead focus on transformational leadership and sustained impact.

Here are a few tips for getting the most out of the Intentional Churches Conference:

- If you are brand new to Intentional Churches, consider attending the Explore ChurchOS® Experience track. You will learn the fundamentals of ChurchOS and use the core tools to develop your first Intentional Growth Plan™—the master plan to activate the Great Commission in your church.
  - If you brought a team, consider dividing up among the tracks and comparing what you are learning.
  - Take time to meet with our Conference Partners! We carefully choose partners who understand the heart of Intentional Churches.
  - Make use of the IC Hub! Ask us anything. We are here to help so don't leave with unanswered questions and unclear next steps.

Finally, we run a tight ship, so plan on moving quickly during our breaks. We plan to begin and end on time to make the most of our time together!

You are here for a reason. We've been praying for you and can't wait to meet you and your team.

To Reach the One, only for His glory,
Bart Rendel & Doug Parks

Guiding Beliefs

Our guiding beliefs explain the reasoning for everything we do in our work with churches. They create our worldview of church leadership. Every tool we use, engagement we provide, training we offer, and book we write is to help a church (leadership and congregations) lead and live with these same convictions. Over time, this will create a collaborative movement of prevailing churches and ensure sustained victory as they multiply disciples, leaders, and plant new churches with the same beliefs and equipping.

Mission & Vision

- God's mission for the local church is to make more and better disciples which was given to us by Jesus and recorded in Matthew 28:19-20.
- The mission is static but the vision, which is dynamic, must be held loosely, taken seriously, and refreshed every one to two years because God can do immeasurably more than you hope or imagine.
- The ongoing vision of "double impact in five years or less" creates healthy tension, stretches us in our planning, and leads to courageous decision making.
- The vision of each local church is unique because each church is Jesus' unique creation.
- Vision creates healthy tension and a True North from which each church should learn to objectify success and learn to judge progress and impact apart from personal preferences.

- It is critical that leaders remain unified when it comes to their common mission, vision, and plan which should be built around the next season’s work to reach people for Christ and make disciples.

Church Growth & Strategy

- The church was meant to grow, and its leaders should be concerned about increasing its kingdom impact—i.e. creating more and better disciples.
- There are no “silver bullets” that work for every ministry but there are best practices to be learned and used.
- Jerusalem and Antioch (your local community) are the priority when it comes to Great Commission activation and the ripple effect of impact in Judea, Samaria and beyond comes from a robust plan to advance the mission first at home.
- The power to grow the church’s impact is in the Gospel, not in our efforts; however, God works with and through us to grow his church.
- A church should strive for balance in its Great Commission execution and outcomes while prioritizing reaching The ONE by mobilizing the Ninety-nine in everything it does.
- Great strategies for Great Commission activation are fueled by prayer and the power of the Holy Spirit and we must pray for wisdom and guidance as we evaluate and plan.

Evangelism & Discipleship

- We must imbalance our strategies, vision and execution toward The One, or the lost, in order to resist the natural tendency of the Ninety-ninety to become selfish.
- We must be leaders who are concerned with both grace and truth, and yet we will emphasize grace to create a place where the lost belong, prayerfully come to believe, and then join Jesus on his mission through the local church.
- A focus on evangelism and reaching the lost is a great way to grow deeply committed, selfless disciples.

- A church's Relational Reach Zone (connectedness to lost people), is typically far bigger than it thinks and should create conviction and stretch the vision of the church.
- Churches should grow primarily through relational evangelism.
- Since no two individual discipleship pathways are identical, we will focus on the fundamentals of engaging the lost through a relationally mobilized Ninety-nine while giving the lost simple steps to engage in worship, teaching, biblical community, and service.

Stewardship & Resources

- As leaders, we are stewards of God's Church during this season and our goal is to pass it to the next generation in the best shape possible.
- Attention is a new commodity along with time, money and energy and we must use God's resources, provided by His people, in the best way possible.
- Church leadership is typically a zero-sum leadership proposition, so we must seek to spend every dollar and minute as strategically as possible when it comes to the Great Commission

Coaching & Training

- Guided self-discovery is far more powerful than consulting.
- We will begin with an informed and honest team-based conversation, never with consultant-based evaluations that create distraction and division.
- We will not create dependency on us, rather, we teach, train and offer resources for a church to fully adopt ChurchOS® and become a contributing member of the ChurchOS® community.
- We are better together and having church leaders collaborating and learning from one another from the trenches of ministry is a powerful way for all of us to collaboratively accomplish God's mission in the world.
